FLIGHT BEHAVIOR* in Concert

Featuring Ariana Saraha & Fernando Medina

ON TOUR, 2018: arianasaraha.com/tour

Old World souls with a new edge...

Ariana Saraha is a singer, musician, and composer from the wild West with an Old World soul. Most often compared to Celtic singer Loreena McKennitt and alt-world artists Dead Can Dance, Saraha draws upon influences from the Mediterranean, Middle East, and Celtic & Eastern Europe, as well as performing a choice selection of traditional music of the same diaspora. But what really invites the listener in, beyond her vocal finesse and exotic influences, is Saraha's rare mixture of raw wildness and heartfelt intimacy.

Saraha and Fernando Medina (drums, percussion) have teamed up to form FLIGHT BEHAVIOR, a new duo whose music "evokes the night sky, the flowering earth, and the blood river in our veins..." Occasionally joined by additional guest musicians, these two follow in the footsteps of bands such as The Creatures and Dead Can Dance in their rich exploration of sonic and rhythmic space.
